

Podcast Proposal Form

Please answer the following questions, giving as much detail as possible.

- Who is the intended audience of this podcast, and why is it relevant to them?

- Communicate your podcast idea with as much detail as possible, addressing the following questions:

- What is the title of the proposed podcast?
- What is the synopsis of the podcast?
- Why is it timely/relevant?
- What is the style, format and/or point of view?

WLGR - LaGuardia Web Radio

- Describe an episode of the podcast. Please specify what an episode will sound/look like, who we will hear from, the format (including length), etc.

- What does your podcast offer that makes it a good fit for this project? What makes it distinct?

- Include short bios of yourself and others on your team (if applicable), including roles and relevant backgrounds.

- What resources or accommodations will you need? (i.e. equipment, royalty-free music, facilities, etc.)

- What is your timeline for completing the podcast? What is the deadline you're hoping to meet?

- Provide links to related work you might like to share, if applicable. (i.e. similar recordings, projects)

